MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Assistant

FROM : Chief, School of Intelligence and World Affairs

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of School of Intelligence and World Affairs No. 11, 10 - 16 July 1970COURSE ACTIVITY1. Intelligence and World Affairs

The first week of the newly-integrated IWA Course has gone quite well. The presentations have been good and the students attentive. There were two non-CIA speakers: Irwin Tobin of State, who gave a thoughtful piece on U.S. Foreign Policy, and Dr. Hans Kohn who, at 79, gave a livelier presentation than some we've heard over the years.

2. Tutorial Programs

25X1A9a (a) [REDACTED] was engaged in a tutorial program this week with a contract agent (U.S. citizen) who has been stationed in 25X1A6a [REDACTED] for two years under [REDACTED] cover. 25X1C4a

25X1A9a (b) Messrs. [REDACTED] reported a very interesting tutorial experience with two [REDACTED] Most of these 25X1X7 foreign tutorials are with internal security services; this one was with the foreign intelligence service. One of the officers was very interested in the Middle East and in any data on Communist or Soviet plans and operations in the area. The other had a more orthodox interest, particularly in Chinese Communism.
